
License Qualifying Courses: Required Timeline

For every license qualifying course you order, you must pass a 100-question, multiple-choice, open-book final exam. The California Bureau of Real Estate requires that you wait a minimum of 18 days from the date you received your books before you may take your final exam. This 18-day waiting period is for EACH COURSE. If you have ordered multiple courses, the following table will help you determine when you can take your final exams:

Your FIRST exam may be taken after:	18 days
Your SECOND exam may be taken after:	36 days
Your THIRD exam may be taken after:	54 days
Your FOURTH exam may be taken after:	72 days
Your FIFTH exam may be taken after:	90 days
Your SIXTH exam may be taken after:	108 days
Your SEVENTH exam may be taken after:	126 days
Your EIGHTH exam may be taken after:	144 days

Note that these are the MINIMUM times (you may take longer if you wish) and are from the date you were enrolled. This date can be found on your Enrollment Verification Form.
